CINEMA IN A DEMOCRATIC SOUTH AFRICA: THE RACE FOR REPRESENTATION

DOWNLOAD

Indiana University Press. Paperback. Book Condition: new. BRAND NEW, Cinema in a Democratic South Africa: The Race for Representation, Lucia Saks, In this title, Lucia Saks uses South African cinema as a lens through which to view cultural changes resulting from the end of apartheid in 1994. She examines how media transformed the meaning of race and nation during this period and argues that, as apartheid was disbanded and new racial constructs allowed, South Africa quickly sought a new mode of representation as a way to distance itself from the violence and racism of the half-century prior as well as to demonstrate stability amid social disruption. This rapid search for a new way to identify and reflect itself is what Saks refers to as the race for representation. She contextualizes this race in terms of South African history, the media, apartheid, sexuality, the economy, community, early South African cinema, and finally speculates about the future of 'counter-cinema' in present-day South Africa.
