When I got close enough to the trashcan, I started to see the same glow that I had seen yesterday. . . The blinding light was too much for my eyes to bear though, and as I started to rise back up, my foot slipped on the slick, polished floor. In I went, head first. I braced my hands over my face for the landing, but I didnt hit the bottom. I kept falling and falling, slowly spinning in several different directions until I felt myself hit a surface.
