SPORT IN SOUTH ASIAN SOCIETY: PAST AND PRESENT

Routledge, London, UK. Paperback. Book Condition: New. First Edition. This book explores the role of sport within the context of South Asian Society. Academics have largely overlooked this fascinating discussion and this collection of essays seeks to remedy this oversight. It reveals that sport can not only be used in many instances as a barometer of the political dynamics of society and a reflection of South Asian culture, it has also influenced these structures. For example, in many instances traditional notions...
