We need to all come together on one accord and educate all of our children in these programs. I thank you for your time. The statement follows: REPAIRED TATEMENT OF AMMIE ARTER P S T C Its not hard to speak on the importance of education, my personal best is a Mas-ters in Rehabilitation Counseling and I continually strive for educational arenas. However, education must have a starting point. That starting point should be home and daycare, seeing that it is not always possible the public school system bares this burden. My child is presently enrolled in the Title I Pre K program at Kermit R. Booker Elementary School. Title One Program is not day care, nor should it ever be considered as such. Title One Program (specifically Pre-K) offers the foundation that some children will not be exposed to. Exposure that will open doors later ! As a parent of a Title One attendee, I am very pleased with the beginning tem-plate that has been offered to my daughter at Kermit R. Booker. I would only hope that Kindergarten programs will mirror this fine program and uphold such high standards of learning. My initial concerns was a noticeable stuttering problem, that turned out to be the active mind of a child not having the vocabulary to express herself. My daughter has been taught to slow down while I was taught not to rush the thought process. Speech therapy and...
