A day consecrated by the example of our fathers, for rendering praise to Almighty God for the bounties of the year. A day on which they recounted his mercies and rendered thanks for all his manifold blessings. A day for the exercise of a generous hospitality to kindred and friends, and for sending portions to the poor and the needy. The heart of every son of want should be made glad; the widow and the orphan should sing for joy. God has crowned many past years with the abundance of the fruits of the earth and with the wealth of the seas. The rich harvest has waved over extensive fields; fleets of laden vessels have crowded every harbor. The voice of health has been heard in all our habitations; children of the youth, the arrows in the hand of the mighty, crowd the play-ground and throng the school-room.
