When the Comforter is come, whom I will send unto you from the Father, even the Spirit of Truth, which proceedeth from the Father, He shall testify of Me. To-day is a day of love, joy, and peace. These are fruits of the Spirit. Whatsoever therefore tends to produce them is congenial to this day's festival, on which we render thanks to God for sending the Holy Ghost, the Comforter, to abide with us for ever. The day of Pentecost in Sion is the antithesis and antidote of the confusion of tongues at Babel. True indeed it is that the Nations of the earth will never return to their primeval unity in one language; but, by the Coming of the Holy Ghost, as on this day, the living waters of the one Gospel of Christ have been made to flow in the streams of the languages of innumerable...
