Excerpt: .for a private Brewery, or a worthless scheme of sanitary improvements, as it is for a State Railway. It is difficult to account for the hesitancy and inaction of the British public in the matter of Indian investments, other than State Loans and guaranteed railways, but I think that the feeling must be ascribed to the conduct of the Government itself. It is autocratic and bureaucratic, and is never, in touch, with the great financial houses of Europe. It cannot bend, and it would be derogatory to its exalted and sublime position, to call into its Councils representatives of banking and commercial establishments, as, on some occasions, has been done by First Lords of the Treasury, and Chancellors of the Exchequer. It is probable that the Rothschilds, the Barings, and other leading financiers are more frequently consulted by the Russian, the Brazilian, and the Argentine Governments, and even by that of the United States, and by our own Home and Foreign Offices, than they are by the India Office. This want of condescension, of savoir v1 1./re, is, to a certain extent, resented by the financial kings. As neither their advice nor assistance is asked for, they do not thrust them forward, but maintain a natural reserve; and their example is imitated by the lesser luminaries of the commercial world. If there be that splendid field for British investments, that the Secretary of State assures us is lying barren in India, why should it...
