The Way Things Were Short Stories of Past Experiences

By Robert J. Walker

AuthorHouse. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Paperback. 176 pages. Dimensions: 9.0in. x 6.0in. x 0.4in. DEDICATION to My Children and Grandchildren A special note to my children, grandchildren, great grandchildren, my nieces, and nephews, and all of the Walker generations to come! The Way Things Were is a collection of short stories that I have written in order to help preserve the memory and history of a way of life that once existed in the 1900s (Twentieth Century). It was a time in the late 1940s and early 1950s when we, Charles (Billy), Robert (Bobby), and Elaine (Chicken) were children growing up in Sebring, Florida and Millen, Georgia. I think the Walkers of the 2000s must have some information regarding the Walkers of the 1900s. I also want the future generations to know the principles and what it was like when I was a child: the atmosphere of the 1900s, the people and racial issues; nature and climate, animal and plant life; the working and living conditions of Black People; the economic and political situations of that time, and of course the conditions on the Home Farm of Grandpa, Alfred Walker, in Millen, Georgia. Grandpa's daddy was Willis Walker and his wife's name...
