

Talent is Overrated: What Really Separates World-Class Performers from Everybody Else

By Geoff Colvin

Hodder Stoughton General Division, United Kingdom, 2016. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 198 x 127 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book. What if everything you know about raw talent, hard work, and great performance is wrong? Few, if any, of the people around you are truly great at what they do. But why aren't they? Why don't they manage businesses like Jack Welch or Andy Grove, play golf like Tiger Woods or play the violin like Itzhak Perlman? Asked to explain why a few people truly excel, most of us offer one of two answers: hard work or a natural talent. However, scientific evidence doesn't support the notion that specific natural talents make great performers. Expanding on one of the most popular Fortune articles in years, with much more scientific research and real-life examples, Geoff Colvin offered new evidence that top performers in any field - from Tiger Woods and Winston Churchill to Warren Buffett and Jack Welch - are not determined by their inborn talents. Greatness doesn't come from DNA but from practice and perseverance honed over decades. This deliberate practice isn't the kind of hard work that your parents told you about. It...
