The truth is that the most powerful faction in the galaxy is the Self-Gratification Consortium. We'd love to tell you that the universe is controlled by powerful psionist-priests who are empowered to execute heretics on their very whim. The truth is that the only psionic priests are the Streakites, and frankly, they wouldn't know heresy if it married their sister. We'd love to tell you that the galaxy teeters on the razor's edge of a political battle that promises to shake the stars to their very core. The truth is that most politicians get as much respect as jock itch. We'd love to tell you that smugglers rake in cash by smuggling spice through house-controlled space. The truth is that most of them merely smuggle Uberclesian Barbecued Ribs into church. We'd love to tell you that a seemingly invincible race of organic terrors is threatening to consume the galaxy. The truth is that they're better described as "gigantic face-eating alien cockroaches." We'd love to tell you that Earth has made contact with alien races and now seeks to carve out a place for itself in a hostile universe. The truth is...
