Excerpt: .torn from the spiritual system, loses his spiritual life, for the life-blood of that system, even the Holy Spirit, no longer animates him. No one wonders that a hand separated from the body by fracture or dislocation, should be incapable of doing any service to the body. All the efforts of a hand in these circumstances are useless: the only reasonable hope lies in using means for curing the dislocation or fracture: even so the only hope of man lies in re-union with God, by being grafted on the true vine, through the spirit of dependence. The true state of the creature, is a state of dependence upon the creator; and when he has left his true state, he can be brought back to it only by a way of dependence. All the messages of God to man have related to this way of...
